

FARRELL MONK

I am the Liberal Democrat candidate for the Bloomsbury Ward. Working in the charity sector for a decade, mainly in the finance functions, I have seen how people power can really make considerable lasting positive change. My current employer is the wonderful IntoUniversity, we run centres for young people in areas all over country with the highest need, inspiring all the children with work wise to succeed. I am a trustee of the NCFA, a charity that inspires young people from all backgrounds to free play and build friendships between communities. Am also an elected board member of the Fulham Supporters' Trust, the body that represents the interests of all Fulham Football Club supporters across the globe. Through this and the co-founding of the largest Fulham F.C podcast, I have actively run campaigns to ensure that the club keep the fanbase at the forefront of their decision-making process. Although a resident of the area for two years, I have already seen how vibrant and unique South Camden is and will seek to ensure it stays that way. Being as progressive and inclusive as possible, working with every resident, to ensure that the council and the people that work for you are really doing so.
